Sailing into the Future with Nursing Informatics

Take a voyage with us on August 5-7, 2021, at the Marriott Marquis San Diego Marina in San Diego, CA, and prepare yourself to navigate the ever-changing waters of nursing informatics.

Set sail...Register by June 24, 2021, and save $100!

Launch Your Conference Experience

- Pilot – Prepare yourself with inspiring speakers presenting on the latest information, best practices, and advances in nursing informatics.
- Tour – Interact with industry vendors showcasing the newest trends and innovations.
- Visit – Network with colleagues with similar and varied informatics nursing interests.
- Steer – Earn up to 10.75 contact hours of nursing continuing professional development, with additional workshops offering an in-depth look at particular topics of relevance.
- Explore – Check out your free access to the ANIA Online Library.

Watch Live Broadcasts from Home or Work

Can’t make it to San Diego? The next best thing is tuning in to our live video broadcasts of selected sessions. Listen and participate from your home or workplace. You’ll also receive access to archived content in the ANIA Online Library after the conference, as well as earn contact hours of nursing continuing professional development for sessions attended. Site license options for group access are available for facilities.

Thursday, August 5, 2021

All session times listed are in Pacific Daylight Time (PDT)

7:00 am – 5:00 pm  Registration Open

8:00 am – 5:15 pm  Pre-Conference Workshop (10.0 CH)
010  Nursing Informatics Certification Review Course
ANIA Board Members and Leaders
This course is designed as a review to prepare for the Informatics Nursing Certification Exam offered by the American Nurses Credentialing Center.

7:30 am – 5:30 pm  Pre-Conference Workshop (7.5 CH)
020  SQL for the Absolute Beginner
RCD  Susan Fenton, PhD, RHIA
This hands-on workshop, conducted on each learner's laptop, will teach someone with no experience in SQL to perform simple queries using DESCRIBE, SELECT, and WHERE, along with other functions, such as basic math and JOIN, to combine data.
Note: Attendees must bring a Windows or Mac laptop with at least 10 GB of free disk space. The software will not run on an iPad or Chromebook. Attendees must be able to install software on their laptop from either an Internet site or from a USB flash drive. If attendees are using a work-issued laptop, they must confirm with their IT department that they have permission to install software (Oracle, VirtualBox) and are able to copy a provided virtual machine to their computer, either via download or USN (using Aegis SecureKey).

8:00 am – 12:00 pm  Pre-Conference Workshop (3.75 CH)
030  Using Lean to Lead Informatics Change
RCD  Elizabeth Weeks, BSN, RN-BC, CMSRN; Lauren Adams Gray, BSN, RN
Learn how to apply key concepts of the lean production system and the lean management system to lead informatics change.

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm  Lunch On Your Own

1:00 pm – 5:00 pm  Pre-Conference Workshops (3.75 CH)
040  With Knowledge and Experience to Share – Don’t Let Writing Leave
RCD  Elizabeth Elkind, PhD, MSN, MBA, RN-BC; Denise Tyler, DNP, MS/MBA, RN-BC
Join the Journal of Informatics Nursing editorial team as they promote another aspect of professional development – writing for publication. If you are currently in graduate school, this pre-conference session will also assist you in your writing assignments. Writing for publication does not have to be a daunting task, and it can be managed with a realistic scope of components. Come with your writing ideas and let us inspire you to write!

050  Career Development: Adding the Innovation Life Cycle Process to Your Professional Toolkit
Ingrid Hilghman, DNP, RN, CPST; Kathryn Shaffer, EdD, MSN, RN, CNE, CCFP
Using an in-depth approach to introduce and/or enhance nurses’ understanding of taking an idea and developing it into a solution is the focus of this pre-conference workshop. Building on nursing informaticists’ skills and competencies, participants will expand their professional toolkit with concepts of design thinking, human-centered design, the science of innovation, and an enhanced knowledge of the project life cycle.

5:30 pm – 7:30 pm  100 Welcome Reception (All attendees are invited.)

2021 Tracks and Session Key

IMPR  =  Impact on Practice
IP  =  Innovation in Practice
LS  =  Leadership Strategies
QI/PO  =  Quality Improvement and Patient Outcomes
RCD  =  Role and Career Development

8:00 am – 9:30 am Opening Ceremonies/Welcome
Opening Keynote Address (1.25 CH)
101 Innovation in the Moment/Emerging Healthcare Technologies: The Future is Here
Rick Hall, PhD, RDN, FAND
In a time of accelerating disruptions and increased demand, innovation is essential for the future of health care.

9:30 am – 11:00 am Exhibits Open/Coffee Break

9:30 am – 11:00 am Poster Viewing in Exhibit Hall

11:00 am – 12:15 pm General Session (1.25 CH)
102 Documentation Burden
Facilitator: Kathy Topp, MSM, BSN, RN-BC
Panel: Carolyn Harmon, DNP, RN-BC; Deborah Chasco, DNP, CCRN, APRN, CNS; Susan McBride, PhD, RN-BC, CPHIMS, FAAN; Patricia Sengstack, DNP, RN-BC, FAAN
A panel of expert informatics nurses will discuss the current and future state of documentation burden in the electronic health record and efforts at the national level to address the impact on clinical practice and patient safety, as well as the role of the informatics nurse.

12:15 pm – 1:45 pm Membership/Business Luncheon (Pre-registration/ticket required)

2:00 pm – 3:00 pm Concurrent Sessions (1.0 CH)
121 Transforming Clinical Informatics Using an Agile Process
LS John Lussier, MSN, RN-BC, FHIMSS
Discuss how COVID-19 forced one health care facility to transition from a waterfall to an agile process to manage EMR updates.

122 Using Information Modeling to Support Wisdom in Practice
IMPR Mary Hook, PhD, RN-BC; Mari Akre, PhD, RN, NEA-BC
This presentation describes a data-driven approach for standardizing and controlling data elements to reduce extraneous documentation and improve the ability to share and compare data to evaluate nursing contributions to patient care outcomes.

3:00 pm – 4:00 pm Exhibits Open/Refreshment Break

3:00 pm – 4:00 pm Poster Viewing in Exhibit Hall

4:00 pm – 5:00 pm Concurrent Sessions (1.0 CH)
131 Linking Quality Measures to Clinical Strategies in a COVID-19 World
QI/PO Katherine Taylor Pearson, DNP, RN-BC, CNE, CLSSBB
Examine the change in preventive care delivery during COVID-19 and evaluate outcomes for the patient population. Experiences of care providers and patients will be shared, and barriers experienced and lessons learned will be discussed.

132 To Infinity and Beyond: Developing and Mentoring Informatic Thought Leaders of Tomorrow
RCD Tammy Surratt Kemp, DNP, RN, NEA-BC
This session will discuss the opportunities of virtual mentorship, both remote and structured, and how these virtual opportunities are creating practice-ready informatics thought leaders to meet the needs of tomorrow in an ever-changing environment.

201     Big Data – Driving Change in Process and Outcomes
Ronda Hughes, PhD, MHS, RN, FAAN

This session will address how the potential of big data to transform health care has yet to be harnessed to improve the processes and outcomes of care throughout the nation.

9:30 am – 9:45 am  Stretch/Movement Break

9:45 am – 10:45 am  Concurrent Sessions (1.0 CH)

211     From the Interview to the Board Room: Communication Strategies to Sail through All Situations
Denise Tyler, DNP, MS/MBA, RN-BC; Brenda Herrmann, MSN, RN-BC, PMP, FHIMSS

This session will provide tools to help you hone your communication and negotiation skills, which are essential for every facet of life, and assist with promotions and higher income, as well as greater self-confidence and success.

212     Creating an Innovations Documentation and Facilitation System to Support Health Care Emergency Pandemic Response
Myron Soyangco, MBAc, BS, LSSBB; Andrew Moyers, BS, LSSBB

Explore how the creation of a system for handling the documentation and facilitation of innovation tracking throughout a health care system during COVID-19 was successful in supporting agile improvements in a deliberate, safe, and organized fashion to properly support the health care system’s commitment to provide the best place to receive care, work, and practice medicine for its community.

Mail or fax completed registration form with your $79 membership dues to ANIA.
On-demand conference sessions will be available for up to 12 hours of additional contact hours of nursing continuing professional development via the ANIA Online Library. These sessions are automatically included with full main conference registration and feature pre-recorded conference content to enhance conference offerings.

OD1 Innovation in Crisis: Getting Creative with Implementation Support
LS Ashley Trambley, MSN, RN-BC
This presentation will provide participants with innovative strategies for at-the-elbow implementation support that can be used not only during a global pandemic but during times of limited resources as virtual support technologies become mainstream.

OD2 Skills Faculty Need to Teach Informatics – Informatics Nurses Can Help!
RCD Lisa Anne Bove, DNP, RN-BC
This session will discuss how practicing informatics nurses can help faculty improve their informatics competencies and overcome barriers to teaching informatics.

OD3 Data Profiling for Nursing Informatics: Ensuring Smooth Sailing for Data Projects
IP Bonnie Norris, MS, RN-BC, CPHIMS; Tara Olson, CPHIMS
This session will explore how the role of the informaticist ensures that outputs can be used to efficiently generate meaningful knowledge and wisdom.

OD4 Post-SAFER Guide Study: Initiatives to Promote Change
QI/PO Elizabeth Elkind, PhD, MSN, MBA, RN-BC; Susan McBride, PhD, RN-BC, CPHIMS, FAAN; Ellen Makar, DNP, RN-BC, CCM, CPHIMS, CENP
The final results of the SAFER Guides ANIA study will be shared, along with initiatives to date and further recommendations to continue to promote awareness and change.

OD5 Perspectives on Performance and Data: Confessions of a Serial Benchmark
IMPR Mark Bassett, MAS, BSN, RN
This session describes three key lessons of success learned in other industries that can be applied to clinical performance improvement projects.

OD6 The 5, 15, 2 Rule
LS Christine Sumner, MSN, RN
The focus of this presentation is reviewing/evaluating how the rules of team/employee engagement may influence the effectiveness and productivity of a clinical health care information technology team.

OD7 All Aboard: Redesigning Procedure Drills to Navigate Successful Downtime Engagement
IMPR Jennifer Sheinberg, DNP, RN-BC; Valerie Adams, MBA, MSN, RN
Discuss the development of a project team tasked with revising downtime procedures, reviewing downtime forms, and ensuring all staff were prepared for future planned and unplanned downtime, as well as challenges and lessons learned.

OD8 Creatively Impacting Patient Hospital Experience Rounds: Nurse Leaders Leveraging Technology
QI/PO Linda DiCarlo, MS, BSN, RN-BC; Deirdre O’Flaherty, DNP, MSN, APRN-BC, NEA-BC, ONC; Stephanie Ye, BSN, RN, CMSRN; Amanda Griffiths, BSN, RN
This session will explore how humanizing technology to enhance rounding with purpose has been instrumental in increased staff and patient satisfaction, improved outcomes, and reducing harm.

Questions? Call 866-552-6404 or email ania@ajj.com
We Got Data...Now We Are Driving Evidence-Based Practice
Alicia Bremer, MSN, APRN-PCS-BC, RN-BC, CPN
Discuss how specific rules embedded within the electronic medical record to track types of documentation can help reduce instances of hospital-acquired conditions.

Got Social Media...Now What?
Danielle Siam, MSN, RN; Lasi McArthur, DNP, RN-BC; Sara Donevant, PhD, RN, CCRN
Tweeting, posting, liking, emojis! Do you wonder about nursing’s role in the rapidly growing world of social media? What about using social media in your research activities? We will discuss the role of nursing in the social media world where casual interactions can have a broad effect and work to build your social media skills.

Event Planning in a Virtual World
Lauren Adams Gray, BSN, RN
Hosting a virtual event requires the same care and attention as an in-person event. This session will discuss how to create a virtual program that engages attendees and ensures event success.

Using a Clinical Decision Support System to Facilitate the Evidence-Based Practice of Enhanced Recovery After Surgery (ERAS) in a Multi-Hospital Medical System
Brenda Herrmann, MSN, RN-BC, PMP, FHIMSS; Megan Argabright, MSN, RN-BC
This presentation will provide insights in the development of clinical decision support systems and the impact they make on evidence-based practice in a multi-facility medical center.

2021 ANIA Conference Planning Committee
Elizabeth Weeks, BSN, RN-BC, CMSRN, Chair
Christy St. John, MSN, RN-BC
Stephanie Dremel, MSN, RN
Kathy Topp, MSN, BSN, RN-BC
Kathleen Ulanday, MHA, MBA, BSN, RN-BC, CPHIMS
Michele Boyd, MSN, RN, NPD-BC, Director of Education Services

Weather

Typical temperatures in August will get up to about 77 degrees during the day and a low of 67 degrees in the evenings. Be sure to pack a sweater or light jacket or wear layers in the session rooms. We also suggest that you bring comfortable walking shoes for your conference activities.

Photo Release

ANA occasionally uses photographs of conference participants in promotional materials. By virtue of your attendance, you agree to usage of your image in such media. Additionally, any photos made public and shared through the official ANIA Conference App are property of ANIA and may be used in promotional materials.

Payment Policy, Fees, and Confirmation Notice

All fees are in U.S. dollars. Registrations will be processed only when accompanied with full payment. If a check is returned by the bank for insufficient funds, full payment must include an additional $30 for bank processing charges and must be paid with a cashier’s check, money order, or credit card. If payment is not received by ANIA prior to the meeting, you must pay the full amount onsite. If you do not receive registration confirmation one week prior to the meeting, contact us at aniareg@ajj.com. Purchase orders are not accepted as payment.

Cancellations and Substitutions

Cancellations and substitutions must be requested in writing. We will be happy to refund your registration fee less a $75 administration fee, if received prior to June 10, 2021. No refunds will be made thereafter. Membership dues are nonrefundable. All other monies will be returned to the party who originally issued payment. If you are unable to attend, a substitution may be made. If the substitute is not an ANIA member, additional fees may apply.

In the event ANIA should find it necessary to cancel or postpone this conference for any reason including, but not limited to, registration responses, strikes, or acts of God, ANIA will not be liable for registrants’ expenses. In whatever manner the cancellation/postponement is ultimately resolved, ANIA will act responsibly to protect members’ and registrants’ investment in the conference and association.

Accreditation Statement

This educational activity is jointly provided by Anthony J. Jannetti, Inc. (AJJ) and ANIA. Anthony J. Jannetti, Inc. is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on accreditation. Anthony J. Jannetti, Inc. is a provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number CEP5387.

NOTE: General sessions are attended by all registered attendees and not listed for selection.

Cancellations and Substitutions must be received in writing. For cancellations received by June 10, 2021, a $75 administrative fee will be assessed, and the balance will be remitted to the original form of payment. No refunds will be made thereafter. Membership fee is nonrefundable/non-transferable. If substitute is not an ANIA member, additional fees may apply. ANIA reserves the right to cancel programs because of emergencies, labor strikes, acts of God, and insufficient registration or sponsorship.
