

American Nursing Informatics Association (ANIA)

Overview

ANIA is a professional organization focused on advancing the field of nursing informatics through education, research, and practice in all roles and settings.

ANIA Vision and Mission

Vision: To be the organization of choice to advance nursing informatics.

Mission: To advance nursing informatics through education, research, and practice in all roles and settings.

History

- ANIA is an organization originally founded in 1982 as the Capital Area Roundtable on Informatics in Nursing (CARING). CARING was developed and organized by nurses in 1982 as a non-profit undertaking to provide a forum for the advancement of automated healthcare information systems.
- In 1992, the American Nursing Informatics Association was formed in Southern California to provide networking, education, and information resources that enrich and strengthen the roles of nurses in the field of informatics.
- The idea of a merger between the two organizations (ANIA and CARING) began in 2005 with discussions between both Boards of Directors. In 2007, the organizations held their first joint annual conference and officially merged in 2010.
